Week 10 Notes:

The Century for Young People- My Suggestion for reading this book is to look through the pictures of the chapter first and then read the main part of the chapter (the white pages). On the next day read through the experiences (the blue pages). By the end of the week do the optional worksheets and discuss what you learned with your parents.

Rules of the Road study guide can be found in the appendix at the end of this manual

Discussion/Essay Questions:

This novel, Rules of the Road, is a coming of age story. What does this mean? Do you think stories like this are helpful to teens?

Jenna thought of herself as ugly. What could have contributed to this thought? How did Alice Lovett help her to overcome these feelings? Who was Alice?

What 'rules of the road' did Jenna wish were in real life? Why?

Jenna had several difficult situations in her life to deal with, what were they?

Economics: How would selling of inferior quality products eventually affect your customer sales base?
